

DENTON

DENTON, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Ora Hallowell, 49, of Whitewright, died Thursday night at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. H. Sinclair. She had been living here for the past month while her daughter attended the College of Industrial Arts. Her husband, L. W. Hallowell, and two children survive. Burial was at Whitewright Friday afternoon.

Heaver Moore, negro, was sentenced to serve six years in the penitentiary by a jury in the Sixteenth District Court Friday. He was charged with shooting his wife to death at Pilot Point last March.

Dr. R. F. Joiner of Gainesville will preach the installation sermon for Rev. R. R. Crockett, new pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, at a special service Sunday.

Several former service men of Denton are planning to go to New Orleans to attend the National American Legion convention, which opens Monday.

One Denton girl Friday had more than her share of the jinx, but got through the day unscathed. She is Miss Vida Ramey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ramey, who celebrated her thirteenth birthday on Friday, the 13th.
