

DENTON

Special to The Telegram.

DENTON, Texas, Nov. 29.—The district convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will meet in the American Presbyterian church here Jan. 17, 18 and 19. The district comprises Denton, Fort Worth, Cleburne, Alvarado, Weatherford and Mineral Wells.

John Phillips, a negro, was arrested at Pilot Point yesterday on a warrant charging highway robbery.

Robert Mitchell, a young business man, and Miss Robble Hawkins, daughter of Mrs. Ella Hawkins, were married here yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother on North Locust street.

A barn belonging to E. B. Willis burned yesterday, causing a loss of about $300, partly covered by insurance.

A burglar entered the room of Miss Ophella Myers at the home of S. T. Naylor and secured several dollars by prying open the trunk.

State Penitentiary Inspector Sam Hawkins, who has been confined to his home for several days, is reported better today.

The home of G. B. Collins in South Denton was entered by burglars Sunday and several articles taken. The burglar ransacked the entire place, but overlooked some money.

Word was received here today of the death at Neosho, Mo., of Rev. A. Alsop, a Christian minister of this city, who was received here today of the death at Neosho, Mo., of Rev. A. Alsop, a Christian minister of this city, who is well known over this section of the state.

The Ideal restaurant was broken into by burglars last night, but as all the cash had been taken home by the proprietor, the burglars had to content themselves with a lot of pies. This is the fourth attempted burglary here this week.

Mrs. M. I. Simpson, a pioneer of the southeastern part of the county, died at her home near Lewisville yesterday, aged about 65 years. She came to Denton county in 1858.

There promises to be more diversification of crops in Denton county next year than ever in its history, despite the fact that this has been one of the greatest diversifying counties in North Texas. Not only are the people turning their attention to peanuts, peas and other truck crops, but many are going back to live stock, and are devoting their attention to cattle and hogs.

F. M. Rayzor has purchased the Cottage Hotel here from Messrs. W. T. and E. E. Fannin for $17,500.